ASSISTED SUICIDE BILL We have received a letter from Lord David Alton and Baroness Jane Campbell regarding the upcoming Third Reading vote on Kim Leadbeater's Assisted Suicide Bill on Friday 25th April. They have spoken to several MP's, and colleagues agree that the most effective way to persuade MP's to oppose this dangerous Bill is through physical letters or postcards from constituents asking them to vote "no" to the Bill. This is borne out from their own experience, serving in both Houses of Parliament over the past four decades. The letter in full is available on the notice board and postcards from the table at the back of the church.

Please take away a postcard from the disability campaign group called Not Dead Yet UK and ask your MPs to vote against the legalisation of assisted suicide in the Westminster parliamentary vote at Third Reading, likely on 16 May. The Second Reading vote passed by a narrower margin than expected due to churches mobilising against the Bill. Now only 28 MPs need to change their vote at Third Reading to defeat the Bill, and your continued opposition will make a crucial difference.

Please maintain a respectful silence in the church, before and after Mass in consideration of those who wish to spend some time in private prayer.
